

France

Yobaba Lounge is a bohemian chateau and yoga silent retreat at the foot of the Pyrenees in the medieval village of Chalabre, France.

“This house has the feel of a secret temple... It’s both majestic and louche, part grand house, part boho shack, accessorised via Marrakech, Ethiopia and Liberty of London”

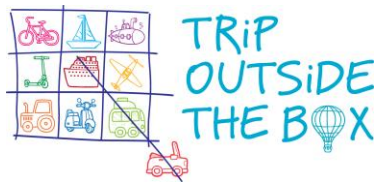

- Conde Nast Traveller

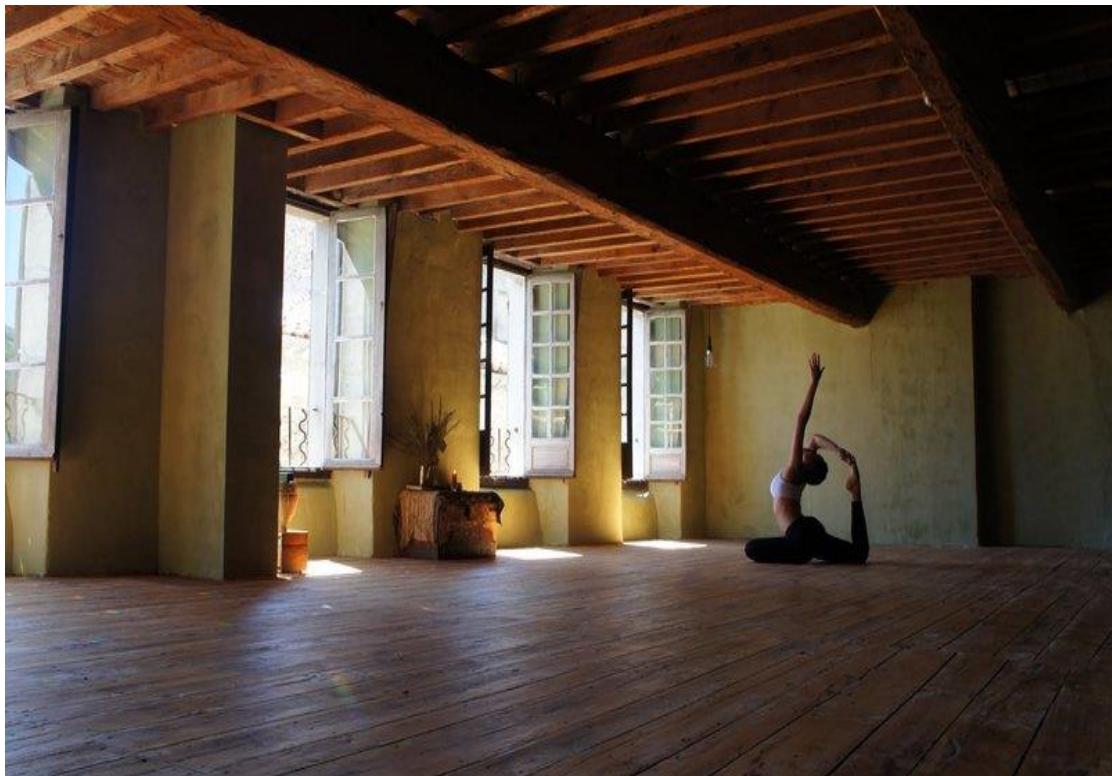

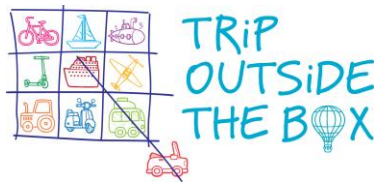

Looking for a healthy and relaxing holiday at a rich soulful yoga and meditation retreat in a historical setting ?

The Retreat at Yobaba Lounge is ideal for those looking to regain their enthusiasm, energy and zest for life. From mindfulness yoga and guided meditation to nutrition in balance cuisine, be reassured you will be welcomed, lifted up and supported as you go through a beautiful journey. The Chateau is set in lush gardens at the beautiful Medieval village of Chalabre in the foothills of the French Pyrenees.

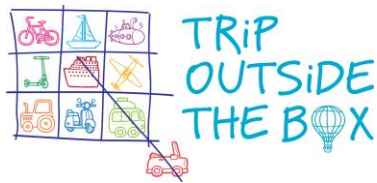

What is so special about this venue ?

- Daily periods of noble silence to reflect
- Chateau renovated using natural, low-chemical building materials
- Cuisine free from dairy, meat, fish, sugar and gluten

- Accommodation

Rooms/Suites are furnished with a double bed and access to either a shared bathroom or an ensuite. You can accommodate either a person alone or two people sharing a bed. They can offer up to 6 further bedrooms which will be situated either in the retreat center or the lovely annexes (3 minutes walk away). Should you require twin set-up or an additional bed in the Suites, this can also be offered.

“The house has the feel of a vast, ancient temple. The bedrooms have a certain monastic simplicity – uncluttered and candle lit – but the suites are huge & looks as if they have been styled by Elle Decoration”

- Daily Mail

- House & Gardens

“There are places that embody the word ‘soul’; places out of time; half-seen, half-imagined worlds. Think Tom’s Midnight Garden, The Little Princess, The Chronicles of Narnia, places where the veil between the material and the ineffable is gossamer-thin: one snag in the fabric and you’re in another realm. Yobaba Lounge in the small village of Chalabre, in the south of France, is such a place.”

— Spa Kitchen review of Yobaba Lounge

- Breakfasts / Meals / Dining options :

Sensational vegan fare - Free from processed sugar, wheat and guilt !

- Optional activites / Day tour options :

Day trip to Gorge de Galamus

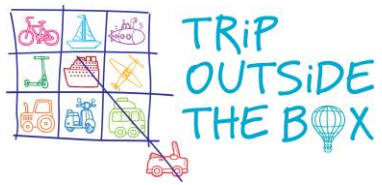

Day trip & shopping to medieval Carcassonne

Day trip to Toulouse

Wine Tour in iconic South-France vineyard

